This exquisite Art Deco buffet cabinet, hailing from Nantes France circa the 1930s, seamlessly blends elegance and functionality. Featuring a stunning green marble top, it serves as a striking centerpiece, beautifully complemented by the warm hues of burl wood and rich Macassar accents. Designed for both style and practicality, the cabinet offers ample storage with adjustable shelving, allowing for versatile organization. While the piece has been lovingly restored to highlight its storied charm, it retains minor imperfections consistent with its age, including small chips along the back rear of the marble edge, adding character to its timeless appeal. This buffet cabinet is the perfect addition to any space, marrying sophisticated design with everyday usability.
