This antique French Louis XVI style writing desk, crafted in France circa 1940s, exudes timeless elegance and classical refinement. Made from walnut with a light natural finish, it features a rich yellow leather top adorned with a gold tooled edge, along with matching leather pull-out side extensions. Three spacious drawers offer functional storage, complemented by three faux drawers on the reverse for visual balance. The desk rests on tapered legs finished with original hand-crafted brass hardware accents and foot caps. Authentic wear including light indents, scratches, and fading on the leather surface reflects its vintage
