This exquisite 1940's French Art Deco sideboard is crafted from luxurious Macassar ebony, finished in a hand-polished high-gloss that dramatically highlights its striking grain. Its gently curved silhouette and streamlined geometry embody the iconic elegance of the Art Deco era. Inlaid brass accents sweep gracefully around the sides, adding sculptural detail and timeless sophistication. Behind its beautifully paneled doors lies generous storage, making it as functional as it is visually captivating. Remarkably well preserved, it remains in excellent condition with only minimal wear consistent with its age and originality.
