This stunning Art Deco wardrobe armoire, made in France circa 1940s, is crafted from rich Macassar wood and finished in a polished high-gloss that highlights its luxurious grain. Bold brass trim and hardware accentuate the geometric form, while Lucite handles add a touch of modern refinement. The central compartment features ample storage with a clothing hanging rack, flanked by additional shelved compartments for organization. In excellent vintage condition with only minor wear consistent with its age, this piece is a timeless blend of elegance and function.
