

BLACK LACQUERED LOUIS XVI STYLE DINING TABLE IN THE MANNER OF MAISON JANSEN

$21,950

SKU: DS-5268

Country: USA
Date of Manufacture: Circa 1950's
Materials: Mahogany, Brass
Condition: Restored, Excellent, imperfections in wood consistent with age
Style: Louis XVI

Depth: 47.5 in.
Height: 31.5 in.
Width: 118 in.

This striking dining table is a testament to the enduring appeal of the Louis XVI style, rendered with a decidedly modern twist. Crafted in the manner of Maison Jansen, circa 1950's USA, the table boasts a luxurious high-gloss black lacquered finish over rich mahogany woods. Measuring 79 inches when closed, gracefully extends to an impressive 118 inches with the addition of all leaves, accommodating grand gatherings with ease. Subtle roped brass trim provides a refined contrast to the polished black surface, adding a touch of opulence and reflecting the meticulous attention to detail characteristic of its era and inspiration. This piece is more than just a dining table; it's a statement of timeless elegance and a captivating centerpiece for any discerning interior. The dining table has been newly restored however does have some minor warping imperfections consistent with age.

Table Closed W: 79” H: 31.5” D: 47.5”
2 Leaves W: 19.5” EA.
Table Extended W: 118”