and sophistication to the overall design. This combination of marble and brass creates a striking contrast, making this cocktail table a true statement piece in any living room or entertainment space. The base of the table is equally as impressive, made from high gloss Ziricote wood. This rare and exotic wood is known for its rich, dark tones and distinctive grain patterns. The high gloss finish adds a modern touch, while also protecting the wood and adding depth to its natural beauty. The sleek and angular design of the base adds a contemporary element to the overall look of the cocktail table. The perfect combination of style and functionality, making it a must-have for any modern and luxurious home. Elevate your living space with this hand crafted masterpiece from Carrocel.
