This mid-century modern dining table, made in the USA circa 1970s, features a striking high-gloss walnut base in a warm, reddish tone. The panelled walnut pedestal is complemented by a polished metal stretcher with exterior accents, offering a refined contrast to its organic wood grain. A sleek glass top with a beveled edge floats above, showcasing the sculptural base beneath. Attributed and inspired by mid-century modern designer Milo Baughman. Vintage and in excellent condition, this piece displays only minimal wear consistent with its age, making it a timeless addition to any sophisticated dining space.
