This exceptional pair of Milo Baughman for Thayer Coggin display end tables embodies the iconic sophistication of 1970's mid-century modern design. Their sleek, clean forms are finished in a calming lacquered sage green, paired with polished brass hinges, legs, and hardware for a refined, contemporary contrast. Glass doors reveal illuminated interiors with a glass display shelf and mirrored back, creating a striking and elegant showcase. Masterfully restored, these pieces present in outstanding condition while retaining their original design integrity. A rare and luxurious addition to any elevated interior.
