A distinguished matched pair of circa 1940 “Leeds” serpentine chests from the Beacon Hill Collection by Kaplan Furniture, masterfully restored in a rich semi-gloss finish that highlights the beautifully figured mahogany and contrasting satinwood and rosewood inlays. Each chest features four gracefully shaped drawers, aged brass ring pulls, elegant splayed feet and newly fitted black felt drawer liners, combining exceptional American cabinetmaking with refined late-18th-century English Hepplewhite influence. Presented as a rare matched pair, these sophisticated chests work beautifully as bedroom storage, oversized nightstands or statement commodes.
