This set of 6 vintage mid-century modern dining chairs, originally crafted in 1940's Italy, has been masterfully restored to showcase their sculptural elegance. The frames are finished in a refined sage green lacquer, giving the chairs a fresh yet timeless presence. Each seat is upholstered in a luxurious Kravet fabric featuring a sophisticated geometric pattern that beautifully complements the tone of the lacquered frames. One chair features a slightly different back pitch, reflecting the authentic handmade nature of the original set. Together, they offer a distinctive, elevated aesthetic ideal for any stylish dining space.
