This vintage Baker writing desk, America circa 1960's, has been meticulously restored in a rich dark walnut finish that highlights its refined craftsmanship. It retains all original brass hardware and sabots on elegant tapered legs, underscoring the iconic quality Baker was known for before mass production. The inset cherry wood top showcases a unique patterned grain, adding depth and distinction. Three black felt-lined drawers provide practical storage, though no key is available for the lock. A beautifully preserved example of timeless Baker luxury.
