Vintage Mid-Century Modern Italian Travertine Cocktail Table, a stunning piece that effortlessly captures the essence of 1970s design. This exquisite table features a square glass top with a beautifully beveled edge, offering a sophisticated contrast to the unique geometric travertine marble base. Supported by elegant inlaid brass accents, the pedestal exudes a luxurious charm that seamlessly blends with both contemporary and vintage decor. Crafted by Artedi in Italy, this cocktail table showcases the timeless appeal of travertine marble, characterized by its natural variations and rich texture. While the original glass top retains its elegance, it does show very fine scratches and a small chip, which are consistent with its history and add to the piece's vintage character. This cocktail table serves not just as a functional centerpiece, but also as a conversation starter, inviting admiration for its artistry and stylish architectural form. Perfect for those who appreciate the allure of mid-century modern design, this piece is a testament to the enduring beauty of Italian craftsmanship.
